

NEW UC SYSTEM

GO LIVE TIMELINE

*All plans are subject to change.

No New Claims: Anyone seeking to open a UC claim will be unable to do so during this time. They can file June 8 or 12 and will be granted backdating to May 30 if they were unemployed the week of May 30.

Anyone who intended to open a claim on June 6 or 7 will not need backdating because their claim will be timely if they open it during the rest of this week. The claim effective date will be June 6.

Everyone Can File Biweekly Claims: Current claimants will be able to file on four days, May 30 to June 2. This is a week earlier than usual for some people, so those individuals will only have to claim the week of May 29.

No Biweekly Claims: Current claimants will be unable to file using the online system or phone from June 3 to June 7.

No Biweekly Claims by Phone: Claimants will be unable to file by phone during this time, through June 9.

Everyone can file new claims in the new system: Anyone seeking to file a new UC claim will be able to file on the new UC system.

Everyone can file weekly claims in the new system: Anyone seeking to file weekly UC claims will be able to file on the new UC system.

Everyone can file weekly claims in the new system in the new phone system: Anyone seeking to file a new or weekly UC claim will be able to file using the new phone system starting June 10.
